

Compare and Contrast

Stop on page 185. How is the wolf like a real wolf? How is it different?

Respond:

Lined area for writing a response to the first question.

Compare

How is the wolf like another student in the class?

Respond:

Lined area for writing a response to the second question.

Author's Purpose

Did Becky Bloom want to inform or entertain her readers? What clues help you to understand her purpose?

Respond:

Lined area for writing a response to the third question.

Apply

The animals in the story have a passion for reading and learning. Tell about a passion you have.

Respond:

Horizontal lines for writing a response.

Analyze

Why did the animals like the wolf after he learned to read well? Explain your answer.

Respond:

Horizontal lines for writing a response.

Title:
Wolf

Author: Becky Bloom

Illustrator: Pascal Biet

Name: _____

Date: _____

